WHY CHOOSE AN INDEPENDENT EXECUTOR?

Public Trustee

Choosing the right Executor for your estate is important. It is a common misconception that it is a compliment to appoint a friend or family member for this difficult task. Many people believe that this can also mean considerable cost savings to their Estate.

In some instances this can be true; although in many cases it is an onerous responsibility. It can take a lot of time, sometimes months of work and requires skills and experience that not everyone has. Trying to sort out someone's affairs when everyone is grieving is not easy; especially if disagreements arise. Appointing the Public Trustee means that everything will be carried out by our caring experts and you can rest assured we will be there when we're needed.

What if you are named as an Executor?

You are not legally obliged to accept the appointment as Executor. You may choose to renounce your responsibility as Executor and seek to have another individual, the Public Trustee or a trustee company appointed in your place. However, once an Executor starts to administer an estate, it is said that they have intermeddled. Once an executor has intermeddled, it is often not possible to renounce.

Duties of an Executor

The Public Trustee will manage the administration of your estate from start to finish, working closely with the beneficiaries to carry out the Will in a way that is consistent with your wishes. It is our job to listen, consult offer advice and make sure everything is dealt with as smoothly as possible.

Call us on 1800 068 784

At the Public Trustee you know: if it's important to you, it's important to us.

Permanent full-time day work, working 76 hours per fortnight.

Location:—North West Regional Hospital.

The North West Area Health Service wishes to recruit a senior Electrician to co-ordinate and supervise our Electrical Trades and Operational Staff to ensure effective and efficient services are provided to our facilities.

Working as part of a multidisciplinary team, you will be responsible for the co-ordination and practice of electrical trade services, including maintenance of specialised equipment and a preventative maintenance schedule for all equipment.

Specifically, you will be responsible for the maintenance and reliability of all services and systems including; high and low voltage supply systems, control and specialised health facility systems as well as emergency power and lighting systems.

You will possess extensive experience relating to the installation and repair of industrial plant and equipment in conjunction with a comprehensive working knowledge of equipment similar to that found in major health care facilities. This will assist you to ensure all plant and equipment is maintained to the best standards and workmanship possible. Your level of knowledge and experience combined with the demonstrated skill and ability to manage minor projects will allow you to actively engage in the opportunities provided to you within this position.

Strong interpersonal and communication skills will be highly regarded for this role. You will be required to interact and communicate effectively with personnel at all levels both internally and externally to effectively co-ordinate and supervise. You will provide leadership to staff to ensure a highly cohesive technical team that will utilise initiative and liaise with other relevant personnel as required to implement timely quality and efficient service provision in terms of both quality and quantity.

You will have a sound working knowledge of the principals involved in manual handling, Australian Standards, Regulations and the Workplace Health and Safety and Health Services Acts. You will be a self-starter who is able to prioritise work and complete tasks in an efficient and effective manner.

The successful applicant must hold or be working towards obtaining an Electrical Contractors Licence. Ongoing professional development and travel to other sites within the North West Area Health Service are requirements of this role.

We will offer you a welcoming and supportive environment where you will become a valued member of our dedicated team. In addition to an excellent remuneration, we will offer you superannuation and access to Salary Packaging as a benefit.

Please call Andrew Groves today on 6430 6615 or email andrew.groves@dhhs.tas.gov.au to discuss your application and learn more about this position.

Essential Requirements:—Relevant Trades Qualification.
