Emergency Management

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ACT 2006

DIRECTIONS IN RELATION TO PERSONS ARRIVING IN TASMANIA (GENERAL)

A state of emergency has been declared in Tasmania in response to the coronavirus disease COVID-19 which poses a significant risk to the health and safety of Tasmanians. In the exercise of emergency powers authorised under Section 40 of the Emergency Management Act 2006 and pursuant to clauses 1(1)(b), 1(1)(q) and 1(1)(t) of Schedule 1 to the Act, I make the following directions:

1. These directions apply to every person who arrives in Tasmania who is not an affected person, other than persons who are subject to Commonwealth quarantine requirements following their arrival from overseas.
2. Every person who arrives in Tasmania from a departure point outside of Tasmania, is required to answer any question asked by an authorised officer or to provide any document or other information required by an authorised officer that is in the control of the person.
3. Every person who arrives in Tasmania from a departure point outside of Tasmania, is required to isolate himself or herself for 14 days at an accommodation facility specified to them by an authorised officer under the Emergency Management Act and:
  - a. Comply with any lawful directions given to them by an authorised officer during the period they are required to remain in isolation at an accommodation facility, and
  - b. Remain in the room provided to them at the accommodation facility specified to them for the period they are required to remain in isolation, unless permitted to leave their room by an authorised officer.
4. Direction 3 does not apply to an unaccompanied person arriving in Tasmania who is under the age of 18 years. Such a person must isolate himself or herself at a private residence or other premises approved by the Deputy State Controller. Persons to whom this Direction applies are required to comply with Direction 6 as if they were a Tasmanian resident and the premises they are approved to isolate at is their residence.
5. The Deputy State Controller may, upon application, authorise a person subject to Direction 3 to isolate himself or herself for 14 days at a private residence or other premises. Persons given such an authorisation are required to comply with Direction 6 as if they were a Tasmanian resident and the premises they are authorised to isolate at is their residence.
6. Direction 3 does not apply to a Tasmanian resident. Such a person is required to:
  - a. Transit directly between their point of arrival in Tasmania and their residence and comply with any directions given to them by an authorised officer in relation to their transit; and
  - b. Remain in, or at, that residence for a period of 14 days unless:
    - i. For the purpose of attending premises to obtain medical care and the person-
      - (A) travels directly to those premises, and
      - (B) returns directly to their residence after obtaining that care; or
    - ii. In an emergency situation that requires the person to leave their residence to protect his or her personal safety, or the safety of another, and the person -
      - (A) immediately returns to their residence once the emergency situation has passed, or
      - (B) once the emergency situation has passed, travels directly to other premises that are suitable for the person to reside in until the expiration of the 14 days; or
- iii. For the purpose of leaving Tasmania, in which case the person is required to travel directly from their residence to the point of departure and observe the hygiene practices described at paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) of Annexure A during transit; or
- iv. Permitted to leave by an authorised officer and the person complies with any lawful directions given to them by an authorised officer; and
- c. Isolate themselves from physical contact with all persons other than persons with whom they ordinarily reside for the period of 14 days; and
- d. Comply with the directions specified in paragraphs (a), (b) (iii), (c), (d) and (e) of Annexure A for the period of 14 days.
7. Direction 6 does not apply if the Tasmanian resident:
  - a. Has arrived in Australia from overseas within 14 days of their arrival in Tasmania; or
  - b. Disembarked from a cruise ship within 14 days of their arrival in Tasmania; or
  - c. Has COVID-19; or
  - d. Has, within 14 days of their arrival in Tasmania, had close contact with a person diagnosed as having COVID-19.
 Such a person is subject to Direction 3.
8. Direction 7 does not apply to unaccompanied persons returning to Tasmania who are under the age of 18 years. Such persons are subject to Direction 6.
9. Directions 3 and 6 do not apply to persons who are specified in the attached Schedule unless that person:
  - a. has COVID-19 or has, within 14 days of their arrival in Tasmania, had close contact with a person diagnosed as having COVID-19; or
  - b. has arrived in Australia from overseas within 14 days of their arrival in Tasmania; or
  - c. disembarked from a cruise ship within 14 days of their arrival in Tasmania; or
  - d. on arrival in Tasmania is displaying symptoms of fever, coughing, sore throat, muscular pains, shortness of breath or unexpected tiredness.
 Such persons are subject to Direction 3.
10. Persons who are not subject to Directions 3 or 6 by virtue of Direction 9 are required to comply with the directions specified in Annexure A for a period of 14 days of their arrival in Tasmania and any additional requirements imposed by the Deputy State Controller and notified to them in writing.
11. Direction 10 does not apply to maritime crew members granted an exemption by the Deputy State Controller under Item 8 of the Schedule. Such persons are required to comply with any conditions imposed on the exemption granted to them.
12. If, on arrival in Tasmania, it is not possible to verify/determine whether a person falls within the attached Schedule, Direction 3 applies to that person until his or her status as a Specified Person is verified/determined.

13. Every person who arrives in Tasmania from a departure point outside of Tasmania is required to comply with any directions of the Director of Public Health under Section 16 of the Public Health Act 1997 applicable to persons arriving in Tasmania. A person who fails to comply with any such directions is subject to Direction 3 unless they elect to immediately leave Tasmania, in which case they are required to comply with any direction of an authorised officer concerning their departure from Tasmania.

Definitions

Affected Person has the definition as described in the "Directions in relation to persons arriving in Tasmania from Affected Regions and Premises" made by me on 18 September 2020.

Tasmanian resident includes:

- (i) A person who ordinarily resides in Tasmania;
- (ii) A person who owns a residential property in Tasmania and intends to reside at that property;
- (iii) A person who has leased a residential property in Tasmania on commercial terms and intends to reside at that property;
